Trading Halts and Resumptions: GME on 5/13/2024

A trading halt is a brief stoppage in trading for a particular stock due to too large of price movement within a too short period of time.

Trading Halts: Limit Order book is dark, empty.

Trading Halts and Resumptions: GME on 5/13/2024

A trading resumption is the continuation of trading after the trading halt.

Note large aggressive market buy orders (large green 3D bubbles) as soon as trading resumes, and then large aggressive market sell orders (large red 3D bubbles) before trading is halted multiple times.

Trading Resumption: Limit Order book is back!
